Unforgettable Tour to Riyadh

Riyadh is the most culturally significant city in Saudi Arabia because it has many interesting places where people can learn about and enjoy different things. Among these places are the King Abdulaziz Historical Center, the National Museum, and the National Library.

The National Museum of Saudi Arabia was built in 1419 and is a special part of the King Abdulaziz Historical Center in Riyadh. It is an important museum that tells the story of Saudi history, the royal family, how the kingdom was formed, and other political events. Inside, you can see old things like antiques, manuscripts, and documents, all organized in order of when they happened. There are eight main areas to explore, ancient Arab kingdoms, the time before Islam, the Prophet's mission, the first Saudi government, how the kingdom was united, and the holy sites of Hajj and the Two Holy Mosques.

Visit the National Museum Park in Saudi Arabia to explore beautiful gardens and learn about King Abdulaziz. You can walk around the park with your family and see old cars that belonged to the king in the Hall of King Abdulaziz. It's a fun and interesting place to visit!

Murraba Palace is a very special palace that King Abdulaziz built for his family. It was made in a traditional style using materials from the local area. You can see some cool pictures inside the palace here. The Edge of the World, also known as Jebel Fihrayn, has a surprising place in a rocky desert in Saudi Arabia. It got its name because when you stand on the tall cliffs, you can see to the faraway line where the earth and sky meet.

Day 2: Riyadh Historical Tour

In the morning, we will visit a special museum in Saudi Arabia. It was made a long time ago and has things from Arabian and Islamic art and buildings. After that, we will go to a pretty park with gardens that are. It's a place where families can have fun together. Then, we will see a special room with old cars that a king used to drive.

Next, we will go to Murraba Palace. This palace was important and was made by a king Abdulaziz. He built it for his family to live in. It was made in a special style that is traditional to the area, and they only used materials from there to build it. There are also pictures inside the palace that you can look at and enjoy.

Next, you will go to a special market in Riyadh called Souk Al-Zal. It has been around for a very long time, since the year 1901 when Saudi Arabia started becoming modern. After that, you will go to a place called Al Masmak where you can learn about the history of Saudi Arabia. There are interesting things to see there like old maps, pictures, and objects from a long time ago. It's like stepping back in time!

Next, you will go see Kingdom Tower or Mamlaka Tower, the tallest building in the city. It is located in the Olaya district in Riyadh and is very famous. Inside the building, there is a shopping mall with many stores and places to eat. You can also visit the Sky Bridge Al Mamlaka for an extra fee, where you can see a beautiful view of the city. After that, you will stop to take a picture at the Imam Turki Bin Abdullah Mosque, which is a big mosque with a design similar to mosques in the Middle East.

Day 3: Edge of The World Tour

After eating breakfast, we will go on a car ride to a place Jebel Fihrayn, also known as "the Edge of the World." It is 120 kilometers away from Riyadh. When we reach the top of the 1,000-foot-high cliff at Jabal Fihrayn, we will see a beautiful view of the horizon in every direction. It will feel like we are standing at the very edge of the world, which will make us feel excited and happy.

The Edge of the World is a place in the desert in Saudi Arabia. It got its name because when you stand on the edge, you can see really far and there's nothing blocking your view.
