Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival Luxor - Luxor Nile Cruise Tours

Morning: Arrival and Embarkation

Your day begins with your arrival at Luxor International Airport, where you will be greeted by your knowledgeable tour guide. From the moment you step onto Egyptian soil, you'll feel the enchanting aura of this land that has fascinated travelers for centuries. You'll be transferred to your Nile cruise ship, your luxurious floating home for the next few days.

After settling in and enjoying a delectable onboard lunch, you'll start your exploration with a visit to the iconic Luxor Temple. This ancient marvel is dedicated to the worship of the god Amun.

After having some time to look around the Luxor Temple, we'll move on to the Karnak Temple. More significant in size than Luxor Temple. It's one of the biggest temples in the entire world, and it's brimming with magnificent artwork and construction.

As the sun begins to set, you'll return to your cruise ship to freshen up and relax before a sumptuous welcome dinner.

Day 2 Luxor West bank tours - Luxor Nile cruise Tours

On the second day of your Egypt Nile River Cruise on the MS Nile Carnival, you'll go on a Luxor west bank tour to see some of the most well-known ancient Egyptian sites.

West Bank Attractions

Begin your day with a visit to the renowned Valley of the Kings, an ancient necropolis that holds the tombs of numerous pharaohs, including the famous Tutankhamun.

Your journey continues to the elegant Hatshepsut Temple, an architectural marvel nestled against the cliffs. Explore the terraced structure, dedicated to the female pharaoh Hatshepsut. Our tour guide will tell you more about the history of the temple, the queen's achievements, and her unique rise to power.

As you journey through the West Bank, you'll encounter the colossal statues of Amenhotep III, known as the Colossi of Memnon. These towering statues have stood sentinel for thousands of years.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Move to Aswan - Edfu & Kom Ombo excursions

Aswan Day Tour

On the third day of your Egyptian adventure, you'll be starting on a journey from Luxor to Aswan, two cities that have played pivotal roles in Egypt's rich history. Aswan, located further south along the Nile River, boasts its own unique attractions and cultural treasures.

As you continue southward, your first stop of the day is the Edfu Temple, one of the most well-preserved and impressive temples in Egypt. Dedicated to the falcon-headed god Horus.

After your Edfu Temple excursion, you'll return to your cruise ship for a leisurely lunch. As you eat, take in the stunning views of the Nile River from the ship's surface.

The next stop on your journey is the Kom Ombo Temple, a dual temple dedicated to both the crocodile god Sobek and the falcon god Horus.

One of the highlights of the Kom Ombo Temple is the Crocodile Museum, where you can see mummified crocodiles and learn about their revered status in ancient Egypt.
