Itinerary

Day 1: Welcome to Luxor

Our agent will meet you at the airport or the Luxor train station and transport you to your Nile cruise in a private A/C vehicle. Boarding. The Karnak temple complex, the largest temple ever built in human history, is included on an afternoon tour of Luxor's east bank. The primary structure is the Amun Re temple, which was considered God's residence on Earth. During the New Kingdom, God Amen was the dominant deity of Thebes, and the ancient Egyptians desired to worship him by erecting temples dedicated to him.

The earliest constructions originate from the Middle Kingdom, however, there are hints of earlier structures from the 3rd Dynasty.

Later, you will see Luxor Temple, which was begun by one of the 12th dynasty monarchs and completed by Ramses II, the famed pharaoh. Like Karnak, this temple was dedicated to Amun Re, the principal god of ancient Thebes, and was positioned in the city's core. You will be transferred to your boat to rest and refresh after your day's adventure. The personnel will perform an Egyptian traditional display in the evening.

Lunch and Dinner will be served, and you will spend the night in Luxor.

Day 2: Luxor West Bank Tour

The Nile cruise includes breakfast. Following that, you will begin your incredible adventure to Thebes, Egypt's sacred territory, by exploring the west bank tour of Luxor, which contains the Valley of the Monarchs, considered the royal burial ground of ancient Egypt's Theban monarchs and rulers, as well as the burial place of our pharaohs. Then you'll travel to Deir El Bahari to see Queen Hatshepsut's temple. This temple is regarded as one of ancient Egypt's most spectacular architectural accomplishments. The voyage will conclude with a visit to King Amenhotep III's Colossi of Memnon.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner.

Day 3: Edfu Temple

Breakfast will be served on your Nile cruise. Your tour guide will next take you on an unusual voyage to an unknown planet. The first stop on today's journey is the Temple of Horus at Edfu, one of Egypt's most spectacular and well-preserved temples. You will then be returned to your ship. During the ride to Kom Ombo, lunch will be served on board. In the afternoon, the Kom Ombo temple, where the two gods Sobek and Haroeris were previously worshiped, will be visited. Return to the boat and eat your meal. From the sun terrace, take in the view of the Nile's unique surroundings. The ancient Egyptian civilization arose and prospered on its banks.

Dinner will be served on board while traveling to Aswan. We arrive in Aswan late at night and spend the night on board.

Day 4: Aswan Tour.

Breakfast will be given on the ship. Later, with your tour guide, you will fly to Aswan to witness the High Dam, which Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser erected in 1960 AD to safeguard Egypt from Nile floods. Following that, you will take a speedboat journey on the Nile to Agilika Island, where you will visit the Temple of Philae, a Greco-Roman temple devoted to the goddess Isis (mother of the god Horus) that was built during the Greco-Roman period. Finally, you'll see the Unfinished Obelisk, a red granite monolith dedicated to the god Amun Re and one of Aswan's most impressive structures. You will return to your ship after your day of exploration. Lunch will be served on board.

Tea will be served to your group on board in the afternoon. In the evening, you are free to do whatever you choose. Dinner and an overnight stay in Aswan.

Day 5: trip to Abu Simble - Embarkation.

After breakfast, you will be met in Aswan by our English-speaking tour guide, who will drive you to Abu Simbel Temples, which is located on the Nile's western bank and south of Aswan. After arriving, you will discover the temples of Abu Simbel, erected by Ramses II, as well as the legendary Egyptian kings. The Great Temple was the most important and largest of the temples. Ramses II commissioned its construction and dedicated it to the mythological god Rahorakhty. The smaller temple on the other side was dedicated to King Ramses II and his beautiful wife, Queen Nefertari. You will return to Aswan after your day of exploration.

You will return to Aswan after your day of exploration. Arrive in Aswan and take a private A/C van to your preferred hotel for check-in, rest, and refreshments, or to Aswan airport for your domestic flight to Cairo.
