Day 2: Day Tour to Pyramids and The pyramids of Dahshur

You will start your day with a delicious breakfast at the hotel, and then head out to visit the magnificent Great Pyramids of Giza. Did you know that the pyramid of Khufu is made up of over 2 million stones, some of which weigh up to 15 tons? The total weight of the pyramid is estimated to be over 6.8 million tons, and the volume is around 89 cubic feet!

After exploring the pyramids, you'll enjoy a scrumptious lunch while taking in the breathtaking view of these ancient wonders. We'll then make our way to Dahshur, which is located near the Giza pyramids. This village is an ancient royal necropolis, situated about 25 miles from Cairo, on the west bank of The River Nile, in the desert.

Finally, we'll transfer you back to your hotel for your overnight stay. You'll be provided with breakfast and lunch during the tour.

Day 3: Museum of Civilization and El Refaai Mosque

After enjoying a delicious breakfast, get ready for our next adventure! We'll start by visiting The National Museum of Civilization, where we'll pass through the Temporary Exhibition Hall, showcasing 400 artifacts from various eras and highlighting the unique Egyptian crafts of pottery, woodwork, weaving, and jewelry. You'll also get to see films and images that showcase the distinctiveness of these crafts.

Next, we'll head to a traditional restaurant nearby to enjoy a delicious lunch. Our tour will then continue to Sultan Hassan El Refaai Mosque, which was built on the location of a market known as "the horse market" and previously had a palace built by Al-Nasir Muhammad bin Qalawun for the residence of Prince Yalbugha Al-Yahawi.

We'll end our day by returning to the hotel for dinner and an overnight stay. You'll be provided with breakfast, lunch, and dinner during the tour.

Day 4-Karnak Temple And Great Temple

After enjoying breakfast, we'll head to Luxor where you'll have some time to rest and check in at your hotel. Then, we'll visit The Karnak Temple, which was expanded by the kings of the Thirtieth Dynasty. They added buildings, facilities, statues, and obelisks, and presented gifts and donations to approach God. Some kings even removed the buildings of their predecessors to build their own.

Next, we'll move on to the Great Temple of Luxor, where King Thutmose III set up booths for visitors to the holy trinity of Thebes, and Tutankhamun completed the inscriptions on its walls. The temple is also known as "Epet Reset" and is one of the best-preserved Egyptian temples. It's considered the most beautiful building and clearly displays the layout of the Egyptian temple.

After exploring these magnificent sites, we'll return to the hotel where you'll have lunch and enjoy the nighttime in Luxor. You'll be provided with breakfast and lunch during the tour.

Day 5: Luxor Attractions

After breakfast, we'll visit some of the most famous attractions in Luxor. We'll start by visiting the Valleys of Kings and Queens. The Valley of Kings is known for its royal tombs, the last of which, Tomb No. 63, was discovered in 2006. The tombs are adorned with drawings and inscriptions from ancient Egyptian mythology that depict religious beliefs and memorial ceremonies of that time. We'll then pass by the Valley of Queens, where the queens of Pharaonic families were buried. In the past, it was known as "Ta-Set-Nefru" or "the place of beauty."

Next, we'll take a break and have lunch surrounded by historical places. After that, we'll visit el-Deir el-Bahari, where King Mentuhotep Nebhepetre built his temple in a stepped form, from which Queen Hatshepsut borrowed the design of her temple. We'll then continue to the Colossi of Memnon, two statues that embody King Amenhotep III and his wife and mother, with inscriptions representing the God of the Nile and symbolizing the unification of the country.

Finally, we'll return to the hotel for some rest after a long day of exploring. You'll be provided with breakfast and lunch during the tour.

Day 6: Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples

The great temple of Edfu will be our final stop in Luxor on this day as we conclude our tour. The temple in Edfu, which is regarded as one of the most stunning and comprehensive Egyptian temples due to its extensive integration of elements and abundance of scenes and texts, is what gave the city its fame.

then you'll go to the Kom Ombo temple, Notably, the ancient Egyptian physician used a scraper or chisel to cut and remove pieces of the head bone, making him the first physician to be able to operate on a living patient. The use of a device called a "Hemm" by ancient Egyptians to measure distances is one of the many fascinating details, All of these tools, as well as medical texts, were kept in bags made of leather to open the abscess.

Additionally, breakfast, lunch, and dinner are all provided.

Day 7: Visit To Aswan Attractions

After breakfast, we'll ride in our private air-conditioned cars to Aswan, where we'll visit the High Dam. The High Dam is a vital structure that protected Egypt from droughts and famines resulting from successive floods. From 1979 to 1987, approximately 70 billion cubic meters of the reservoir were withdrawn from the High Dam Lake to compensate for the annual deficit in the natural revenue of the Nile River.

Next, we'll visit the Unfinished Obelisk, which is believed to be the largest obelisk in Egypt and was commissioned by Queen Hatshepsut. Although it's incomplete, some opinions suggest that it was carved to be evidence of the queen's strength and solidity.

Finally, we'll end our tour in Aswan by sailing to the Nubian Village. The people of the village showcase their culture, customs, and traditions, preserving their Nubian environment in form and subject matter. It's considered one of the most enjoyable destinations in all of Egypt.

We'll then return to the hotel in Luxor, where you'll have breakfast, lunch, and dinner as planned in our program.

Day 8: Back To Cairo

After checking out of the hotel, you'll take one of our ready-made cars to the airport to catch your flight back to Cairo International Airport, where you can relax and get some rest before we embark on our next adventure the following day.

Day 9: Fayum Day Tour

After having some delicious Egyptian breakfast, you'll get ready for an exciting day in Egypt, accompanied by your tour guide. You'll start by getting in a private van at your hotel in Cairo and driving leisurely for 105 kilometers southwest to Fayoum, an Egyptian city and the capital of Fayoum Governorate.

Upon arrival, you'll visit the Lake of Qarun, also known as the Pond of Qarun, which is located in Fayoum and is one of the largest natural lakes in Egypt. Your tour guide will inform you about the history of the lake before you take a break for lunch.

After lunch, the tour guide will take you to Wadi El Rayan Reserve, located in the southwestern part of Fayoum Governorate. It consists of the upper and lower lakes, the waterfalls area that connects the two lakes, the Uyun al Rayyan area south of the lower lake, and the Jabal al Rayan area surrounding the eyes.

As your driver takes you back to your hotel in Cairo, you'll have completed a wonderful tour. You'll be provided with breakfast and lunch during the tour.

Day 10: Bahariya Oasis and The White Desert

After breakfast at your hotel, we'll ride in our private air-conditioned car to Bahariya Oasis. This oasis is home to many important monuments, including the tombs of the Twenty-sixth Dynasty, the cemetery of sacred birds, the ruins of the Roman Triumphal Arch, the remains of the Temple of Isis, and a temple dating back to the era of Alexander the Great. It also contains the cemetery of the Valley of the Golden Mummies.

We'll then continue our journey to reach the White Desert, which has a beautiful white color that covers most of its parts. The White Desert covers a total area of 3010 square kilometers and is a protected desert and natural landscape that represents a model of the Karst Kama phenomenon. It's also considered an open museum for the study of the desert environment. We'll camp there all night and enjoy the beauty of the desert.

You'll be provided with breakfast, lunch, and dinner during the program.

Day 11: Return to Cairo

After this lengthy remarkable evening, you will return to Cairo where you can take a nice, hot shower and spend the rest of the day as you please in the hotel or in your room.

Day 12: Travel To El-Ain El-Sokhna

After breakfast, you will prepare to travel to El-Ain El-Sokhna in our private, comfortable car. Several hours later, we will check into the Stella Di Mare Grand Hotel, where you will have some time to yourself to do as you please.

Day 13: Snorkeling in El-Ain El-Sokhna

After finishing your meal at the elegant Stella di Mare hotel, you'll get ready to go snorkeling in the Red Sea Attractions from a boat. Once you've had a great time in the warm water, you'll return to the hotel for lunch and to spend the night.

Day 14: Back Again to Cairo

Once you've had your fill of fun in El-Ain El-Sokhna, check out of the hotel, and we'll take you back to the Cairo Hotel for lunch and the rest of the day in a private vehicle.

Day 15: Return Home

We hope your time in the historical nation of Egypt was one to remember. You will eat breakfast today, check out of the hotel, and then be driven back to the Cairo International Airport.

The trip is over.
