Day 1: arrival day.

Upon your arrival at Cairo International Airport, our expert Egypt Tours tour leader will greet you and escort you to your hotel in Cairo in a private air-conditioned vehicle. Upon arrival at the hotel, you'll be welcomed with a refreshing drink and assisted with a smooth check-in process. We'll also provide you with details of your itinerary for the next day's journey.

For your first day, lunch will be provided.

Day 2: pyramids tour

After enjoying your breakfast, we'll transfer you to the Great Giza Pyramids, built during the reign of Pharaoh Khufu, who ruled between 2528 and 2551 BC. Other pyramids were also built during the reigns of Khafre, who ruled between 2494 and 2520 BC, and Menkaure, who ruled between 2472 and 2490 BC. These pyramids are some of the world's oldest and most iconic structures.

Next, you'll visit Memphis, a former capital of Lower Egypt and a major city during the Old Kingdom period.

You'll also visit the Pyramid of Djoser, also known as the Pyramid of Saqqara or the Step Pyramid, which is one of the most historically significant and iconic archaeological sites in Egypt. It is a magnificent example of the power and sophistication of ancient Egyptian builders.

After the tour, we'll take you back to your hotel for an overnight stay. Breakfast and lunch will be provided on this day.

Day 3: Cairo tour

Get ready for an exciting day! After a delicious breakfast, we'll take you to visit some of the most famous and historic sites in Cairo. First up is the Egyptian Museum, which houses some of the world's most impressive artifacts and treasures. You won't want to miss this must-see museum!

Next, you'll visit the Saladin Citadel, a fortress built by the legendary Salah al-Din al-Ayyubi on the Mokattam mountain. The fortress was completed by Sultan Al-Kamil bin Al-Adil, and it was even used as a home for the king in the past. Today, it's a popular tourist destination.

After that, you'll explore the Khan El Khalili Bazar, one of Cairo's oldest neighborhoods. This vibrant area is full of shops, restaurants, and attractions, and it's a great place to experience Egyptian culture.

You'll spend the night in Cairo, and we'll provide breakfast and lunch. Get ready for a day full of adventure and discovery!

Day 4: East Bank of Luxor

Start your day off right with delicious breakfast to fuel your travels. We'll ensure a hassle-free transfer from your hotel to the airport, where you'll board your flight to Luxor. Once you arrive, be sure to visit some of the most iconic sites in Luxor!

The Karnak temple is an ancient monument that has been added to by successive rulers over time. Dedicated to the god Amun, his wife Mutt, and their son Khonsu, the temple boasts an impressive range of architectural styles and is a must-see for history buffs.

The Luxor temple is a magnificent complex of ancient Egyptian temples located on the east bank of the Nile. Commissioned by Amenhotep III, it was built to honor the god Amun and serve as a central location for worship of the three members of the Theban Triad.

After a day of exploring, we'll take you back to your luxurious Nile cruise ship where you can unwind and enjoy the all-inclusive amenities and meals. Get ready for an unforgettable journey through ancient Egypt!

Day 5: West Bank of Luxor

Enjoy a luxurious morning in Fayoum and the oasis on the fifth day of your 13-day Cairo and Nile cruise package. Visit the famous Valley of Kings, where ancient Egyptians constructed tombs for pharaohs and nobility. Explore the Hatshepsut temple, a group of pharaonic temples, and tombs on the west bank of the Nile. See the magnificent Colossi of Memnon, erected in memory of Pharaoh Amenhotep III. End your tour and return to your Nile cruise, where all meals are included.

Day 6: Edfu and Kom Ombo

On the sixth day of your tour, you'll sail to Edfu and visit the impressive archaeological site after breakfast. Edfu was previously called Edbo or Debo, meaning the town of intrusion, and later renamed Apollopolis Magna by the Ptolemies. Nowadays, it's a popular tourist destination with ancient temples and monuments to explore. The Kom Ombo temple was built during Ptolemy VI Philometor's reign, and its stunning decoration was finished during Emperor Tiberius' time. You'll enjoy the convenience of all-inclusive day meals during your Nile Cruise, and returning home will be easy. Don't worry about preparing meals - we've got you covered

Day 7: Aswan day tour

Enjoy breakfast every day of your tour to fuel your full day of sightseeing. The High Dam has protected Egypt from drought and famine by providing a reservoir of water to offset the annual deficit in the Nile River's natural revenue. The Unfinished Obelisk, located east of the Nile River, is a stunning and unique monument that attracts many tourists. The Philae temple is named after the beloved Philae and was the last frontier of Egypt in the south, as the ancient Egyptian and Coptic name, Bilak, means the end. After your sightseeing, return to your Nile cruise to relax and savor the convenience of all-inclusive day meals.

Day 8: sail to Abu Simbel

Begin your eighth day of the tour package with a delicious breakfast before transferring to a sailing vessel for a journey to the iconic Abu Simbel Temple. This archaeological site in Egypt is widely recognized due to its association with the annual occurrence of the sun shining directly on the statue of Pharaoh Ramses II, which happens twice a year on October 22 and February 22. Upon returning from Abu Simbel, pack your bags and fly to Cairo for an overnight stay in a hotel. Breakfast is the only meal included on this day.

Day 9: free tour

You have a free day in Cairo to explore the city at your own pace. You can stroll around the city with locals or opt for a guided tour with a tour leader, depending on your preferences. The day's meals include breakfast only.

Day 10: Travel to Fayoum

Begin your day with a nutritious breakfast, enabling you to enjoy your excursion to Fayoum. Wadi El Hitan is renowned for its fossilized remains of the oldest whales ever discovered. The area was once under a vast ocean 40 million years ago, but geological changes resulted in the ocean receding and leaving behind a wealth of marine life. You can find fossils of various types of whales, shells, and fish in this region.

After exploring Wadi El Hitan, relish a delectable lunch in Tunis village before continuing your journey. Spend the night in Fayoum and enjoy all three meals of the day, which include breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 11: last day at Fayoum

Begin your day with a nutritious breakfast and head straight to your first destination. Located in the Western Desert, Lake Qarun is connected to the Nile River via Bahr Yusuf, an ancient water channel established by King Amenemhat II in the 19th century BC. The channel passes through the governorates of Minya and Beni Suef before reaching the lake.

The Wadi El Rayan Reserve is a breathtaking desert environment featuring sand dunes, natural springs, a variety of plants and wild animals, and significant marine fossils.

Once you have explored these stunning locations, travel back to Cairo for an overnight stay. The day's meals include breakfast and lunch.

Day 12: Baharyia Oasis

Begin your day with a healthy breakfast and set off to explore the mesmerizing sights of Baharyia Oasis.

The White Desert is a stunning and unique location situated in the New Valley Governorate, southwest of Cairo. Its white appearance is due to the abundance of white sediment that covers most of the area.

The Black Desert is a captivating spot where black volcanic hills have erupted for centuries, leaving behind a distinct type of rock known as Jasper. The Black Desert is entirely composed of Jasper, and the English Mountain is the highest peak in the region.

Book now and take advantage of this opportunity to explore these fascinating sites. Enjoy an overnight stay at a luxurious hotel in Cairo and indulge in delicious breakfast and lunch to fuel your adventure.

Day 13: End of service

On the last day of your trip, after a satisfying breakfast, you will be escorted to the Cairo International Airport, where your journey with Cairo Top Tours will come to an end.
