Day 1 : Arrival to Cairo and Check in

When you arrive at Cairo International Airport, a representative from Cairo Top Tours will be there to meet you with a sign showing your name. They'll take you to your hotel in Giza in a comfortable, air-conditioned vehicle. When you get to the hotel, you'll be welcomed with a drink and helped with check-in. You'll also go over the itinerary for your 5-day tour to make sure you know what time you'll be picked up for each activity. You'll spend the night in Cairo at a nice hotel.

Day 2: Giza Pyramids Tour, Saqqara Necropolis, Memphis City

We'll start your day with a delicious breakfast at your hotel in Cairo before meeting up with our representative to begin your Giza Pyramids tour. You'll visit the Great Pyramid of Khufu, built 4,500 years ago in the necropolis of Giza. You'll have plenty of time to explore the pyramids on your own or with your guide.

You'll also see the second Pyramid of King Chephren and the famous Sphinx. If you choose, you can take a camel ride to take amazing photos of the Sphinx (optional). You'll also visit the Valley Temple, an ancient temple located in front of the Sphinx, where the ritual known as the opening of the mouth was performed.

You'll then be transferred to the open-air museum in the ancient city of Memphis to explore the treasures and masterpieces that remain from the oldest capital city of the Egyptian empire. You'll also visit the Saqqara Necropolis, home to some of the most iconic ancient Egyptian monuments, including the Step Pyramid and eleven royal pyramids, as well as Mastaba tombs for high officials, aristocrats, and nobles.

Your Giza tour also includes access to the pyramid of Teti and the tomb of Kagemni, decorated with colorful scenes of daily life in ancient Egypt. After the tour, we'll take you back to your hotel for the night.

Meals included are breakfast and lunch.

Day 3: Alexandria Day Trip from Cairo

After breakfast, your tour guide will meet you to take you on a day trip to Alexandria. You'll travel on the Alexandria Desert Road for about three hours, stopping for coffee along the way.

When you arrive in Alexandria, you'll discover the beautiful city that was founded by Alexander the Great in 332 B.C. You'll visit ancient catacombs that display a blend of Egyptian and Greek art and architecture. You'll also see Pompey's Pillar and the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, which are underground treasures.

You'll then visit the Citadel of Qaitbay, built from the ruins of the ancient Lighthouse Pharos. You'll also pass by the modern Bibliotheca of Alexandria before enjoying a delicious seafood lunch at a restaurant overlooking the sea.

After lunch, we'll drive back to Cairo for an overnight stay. Breakfast and lunch are included in this tour.

Day 4: Egyptian Museum, Cairo Citadel, Khan El Khalili

After breakfast, you'll meet your guide for a tour of the Egyptian Museum in Cairo, which has been open to the public since 1902. You'll see the oldest artifacts in Egypt and learn about the country's ancient history.

Next, we suggest visiting the Citadel of Saladin, a medieval fortress built by the Muslim Sultan Saladin Al Ayyubi. You'll see its impressive towers and visit the alabaster mosque of Mohamed Ali, which was built in 1805 and completed by his son after his death. The citadel was the center of ruling Egypt for about 700 years until the Egyptian revolution in 1952.

After lunch, we'll take a break to visit Cairo's oldest market for a unique shopping experience. Then, we'll transfer you back to your hotel in Cairo for the night, giving you time to explore the city on your own the next day.

Breakfast and lunch are included in this tour.

Day 5: Final Departure

On the fifth and final day of your visit, your tour guide will assist you in transferring to Cairo International Airport for your departure from Egypt. Breakfast is included on this day. We hope you've had a wonderful time exploring the beautiful cities of Cairo and Alexandria with us, and we look forward to welcoming you back to Egypt in the future.
