Itinerary

Day 1: Wednesday- High Dam - Philae Temple

When you arrive at Aswan airport, a representative from our business will meet you and take you to the MS Concerto Egypt Nile River Cruise in Luxor so you can check in and set out on your Aswan Excursions.

Visit the Aswan High Dam, which was created to protect the nation from the yearly heavy floods.

Then you will be driven to Aswan to continue your excursions where you will see the magnificent Philae Temple with its stunning Greek-Roman architecture and a view of the Nile River. Thankfully, the temple has preserved its inscriptions over the years, allowing us to learn about the role of royalty in Egyptian history as well as the significance of gods in ancient Egypt.

Back to the Nile Cruise boat for having your buffet lunch and dinner to be served at night while enjoying the scenery of the Nile in Aswan.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Thursday - Kom Ombo Temple - Sailing to Edfu

After breakfast on board the Nile cruise, we will sail to Kom Ombo, where you will be escorted by an Egyptologist guide to take part in one of our Egypt Day Tours. The Kom Ombo Temple was constructed with two entrances, one for God Sobek, a crocodile-shaped deity, and the other for God Haroeris, a falcon-headed deity. As the MS Concerto Nile Cruise makes its way to Edfu, lunch and dinner will be served on board.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 3: Friday - Edfu Temple - Luxor East Bank Tours

After breakfast on the MS Concerto Nile Cruise, you will experience your Luxor day tours, but first, you will embark on an amazing tour to Edfu where you will visit the falcon God Horus Temple, also known as the Edfu Temple, which was built by the Ptolemaic Kings. Construction on the temple began under Ptolemy III Euergetes, and it was completed with decorations under Ptolemy XII Auletes. After lunch and dinner are served, board your MS Concerto Egypt Nile River Cruise and begin sailing to Esna and Luxor to experience the Luxor East Bank Tours and see the most remarkable temples in Egypt, Luxor Temple, and Karnak Temple.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 4: Saturday - Disembarkation

Enjoy your delicious breakfast before disembarking from the Egypt Nile River Cruise to take part in Luxor West Bank Tours, First, visit the Valley of the Kings before traveling to Hatshepsut Temple at Deir El Bahari, who was the second female pharaoh and the fifth ruler of the 18th dynasty. Next, see the Colossi of Memnon, two enormous stone statues built in honor of Amenhotep III.

You will then be driven to the airport or train station serving Luxor.

We sincerely hope you enjoyed your four-day trip down the Nile from Aswan to Luxor.
