Itinerary

Day 1: Saturday - Luxor East Bank Tours

The first day will be spent embarking and checking into your cozy cabin aboard the Sonesta Moon Goddess Nile Cruise before lunch. We will pick you up from any point in Luxor, such as the Luxor international airport or the train station. Then, meet your Egyptologist guide to enjoy your Luxor day tours and see the magnificent Karnak Temple, which is regarded as the crowning achievement of ancient Egyptian structures constructed primarily during the New Kingdom. He will also direct you to the iconic Luxor Temple in Luxor, which was built over the course of numerous monarchs but was started by Amenhotep III. You will take part in a Belly Dancing Show and afternoon tea before dinner is provided on board after finishing your Luxor East Bank Tours. In the lounge, listen to music.

Food: Lunch and Dinner

Day 2: Sunday, Sail from Edfu with Luxor West Bank Tours

Experience the optional adventure of a hot air balloon ride in Luxor, where you can witness the breathtaking beauty of the city from above. Start your day with a wake-up call in the early morning and enjoy breakfast on your Egypt Nile River Cruise. Afterward, embark on your Egypt Day Tours in Luxor, beginning with a visit to the Luxor West Bank.

Explore the fascinating Luxor West Bank Tours to witness the final accomplishments of the ancient Egyptian pharaohs during the New Kingdom. Marvel at the royal tombs carved into the western mountain, which eventually became known as the Valley of the Kings. Gain insights into the mummification process and discover the burial rituals of ancient Egypt.

Your knowledgeable guide will then take you to see the Colossi of Memnon, the towering statues that guard the entrance of the mortuary temple of Amenhotep III. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to visit the renowned temple of Queen Hatshepsut, a prominent female pharaoh in ancient Egyptian history.

Later, sail to Edfu while enjoying lunch on board your cruise. Indulge in a delightful afternoon tea, and in the evening, savor a delicious dinner accompanied by music in the lounge.

Meals included throughout the day: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner.

Day 3: Monday, visit Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples

After a wake-up call in the early morning and a sumptuous breakfast on board the cruise ship, guests can have a fantastic tour of Kom Ombo and Edfu, visiting the temple at Edfu that was constructed for the cult of God Horus, before sailing to Kom Ombo while lunch is being served on board. Visit the Kom Ombo Temple, which was shared by the gods Sobek and Horaeris in ancient Egypt, and then continue sailing to Aswan while having afternoon tea and your delectable dinner on board. To complete your entertainment experience with Cairo Top Tours, the Galabiya Party will be held.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 4: Tuesday - Aswan Tours

You will eat breakfast on board the vessel at 7:00 am before disembarking from your Egypt Nile River Cruise and beginning your Aswan day tours. First, you will visit the High Dam in Aswan, which is the country's largest dam but was not the country's first. Next, you will travel to the Granite Quarries to see the largest Unfinished Obelisk, which some scholars believe was never finished because it was not finished before Queen Hatshepsut passed away. The Temple of Philae in Aswan, which was built in the Greco-Roman architectural style for the worship of Goddess Isis, will be your next stop on your Aswan tours.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Day 5: Wednesday -Final Day

Our tour guide will transfer you from the Luxor to the Aswan Nile Cruise boat after breakfast to the Aswan airport, train station, or any other drop-off place required.
