Day 02: Visit the Giza Pyramids and the Egyptian Museum

Start your day with a delicious Egyptian breakfast. You can enjoy traditional dishes like fowl medames, falafel, or an omelet at a local café or your hotel. Head to the Giza Plateau, located just outside Cairo, to explore one of the world's most iconic archaeological sites—the Giza Pyramids. These ancient wonders include the Great Pyramid of Giza, also known as the Pyramid of Khufu, the Pyramid of Khafre, and the Pyramid of Menkaure.

One of the most striking and well-known tourist attractions in Egypt, The Great Sphinx, will be your next stop after seeing the three tallest pyramids at Giza. The enormous Sphinx holds the skeletal remains of a monarch and his queen.

You'll find a variety of local restaurants and food stalls near the pyramids serving traditional Egyptian cuisine. Try dishes like koshari, kebabs, or a mezze platter for a satisfying midday meal.

After exploring the Giza Pyramids, head back to Cairo and visit the Egyptian Museum in Tahrir Square. This museum is home to an extensive collection of artifacts from ancient Egypt, including the treasures of Tutankhamun.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 03: Alexandria day tour

Start your day early by taking a morning train or a private driver for the approximately 2.5 to 3-hour journey from Cairo to Alexandria. Your first stop should be the modern architectural marvel, Bibliotheca Alexandrina. This library is a tribute to the ancient Library of Alexandria and is a center for learning and cultural exchange.

Resume your tour by visiting Pompey's Pillar, a massive column that stands in the ancient Roman temple complex known as the Serapeum. You can also explore the ruins of the Serapeum while learning about the history of this site.

Alexandria is famous for its seafood. Head to a local seafood restaurant along the Corniche, where you can enjoy freshly caught fish and other delicious seafood dishes while taking in stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea.

After lunch, make your way to the Citadel of Qaitbay, a historic fortress located on the Mediterranean coast. This citadel was built in the 15th century on the site of the ancient Pharos Lighthouse.

After arriving in Cairo, you'll have a chance to spend the night at your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 04: Day Tour to Luxor by Air

A breakfast box will be provided by your hotel before you are driven to the Cairo airport, where our private tour guide will meet you to start your spectacular tour of Thebes. When you land in Luxor, a member of our tour group will meet you there and drive you to the Valley of the Kings, which is thought to be the burial place of Theban kings and other ancient Egyptian rulers.

Next, you will visit the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut in Deir El Bahari. One of the most impressive examples of ancient Egyptian architecture is this lovely temple, which was entirely carved into the mountain. The Colossi of Memnon, which belonged to King Amenhotep III, is the next place you'll go. It will be a trip you won't soon forget if you visit these three places.

Following lunch, you'll visit Luxor's East Bank, which is home to the magnificent Karnak Temple Complex. This magnificent location is thought to be the site of the largest construction undertaking in history. The Temple of Luxor will be your final stop. It was begun by one of the famous kings of the 12th dynasty and finished by Ramses II.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 05: Final Departure

After enjoying your tasty breakfast at your hotel, you will be driven to Cairo International Airport to catch your flight back home.
