Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive Cairo, Optional Sound and Light Show in Giza Pyramids

Meet our agent at the Cairo airport when you arrive for a transfer to your hotel. Enjoy a welcome drink when you arrive, and then we'll review your 5-day Cairo and the Red Sea tour itinerary with you to make sure it fits the timetable and includes any optional Cairo sightseeing Egypt Luxury Tours you might wish to do.

You can see an optional sound and light show at the Giza Pyramids the next day if you have enough time to view the performance and learn about Egyptian history.

Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Saqqara, Memphis

You will be greeted by a licensed tour guide who will take you on a tour of the Giza Pyramids area after you have breakfast at our hotel's buffet. Your personal tour guide will make every effort to respond to your questions throughout the journey, which will help you appreciate Egyptian history in a whole new manner.

King Cheops was the son of Snefru, who built the Giza Pyramids. Visit the Valley of King Chephren to see his mummified body and the Sphinx statue. Saqqara, 200 years older than Giza, offers some of the best tombs in Egypt. Mit Rahina, an open-air museum, features the largest alabaster sphinx in Egypt and a statue of Ramses II. Lunch is recommended to enjoy the sights and sounds of this amazing site.

Overnight in Cairo

Meals: breakfast, lunch

Day 3: Islamic Cairo, Coptic Cairo, Egyptian Museum

A tour guide will lead a fascinating city tour of Cairo, starting with the Cairo Citadel. The tour will explore historical sites and Islamic culture, including the Saladin Citadel, built by Sultan Saladin in the 12th century. The alabaster mosque of Mohamed Ali is located inside the citadel. The tour will also explore the history of Christianity, including the earliest churches and the Holy Family's site. Lunch will be enjoyed before exploring the market in Khan El Khalili, home to old mosques and mausoleums of Prophet Mohamed.

Overnight in Cairo
