Day 4 : Aswan Tours, Kom Ombo Temple, Sail to Edfu

After enjoying your breakfast aboard your Aswan to Luxor Nile Cruise, Your Aswan Day tours will take you on a tour to see one of the most outstanding modern projects that are completely associated with raising Egyptian income. It's the famous Aswan High Dam. The Unfinished Obelisk block of stone was destined to become an obelisk almost 40 meters high. The unfinished obelisk weighs more than 1000 tons.

Visit the Temple of Philae to see the main temple honoring Goddess Isis, the mother of Horus. Observe the two granite lions that guard the temple's entrance; they date from the late Roman period and exhibit Byzantine influences. Return to your opulent boat and set sail for Kom Ombo on the Nile cruise. Lunch will be served as an open-buffet buffet while you sail. When you arrive, you will be greeted by your personal tour guide and begin your amazing journey to the Temple of Kom Ombo, a double temple built during the Ptolemaic dynasty and dedicated to God Horus and God Sobek, a crocodile-related evil spirit in ancient Egyptian mythology. The Nile Cruise vessel will then depart for Edfu. Take pleasure in your afternoon tea while at sea, Captain's welcome drink.

Dinner will be served aboard the cruise and disco music in the lounge bar for tonight's entertainment. Overnight on board at Edfu.
