Aswan

If you are planning a vacation in Egypt, particularly considering traveling from Cairo to Aswan, do not forget to add the famous temples of Abu Simbel to your itinerary. These stunning, all-rock-cut temples were created by the great Pharaoh Ramses II for his beloved wife — the extraordinary Nefertari. They are some of the most recognized sites in Egypt. In the 1960s, they too were moved so as not to be submerged in the waters of about Lake Nasser which was created after the construction of the dam at Aswan.

Enjoy an experience of a memorable day tour from Cairo to Abu Simbel where all the sightseeing will be concentrated on the temples, and more specifically, the world's eighth wonder. After this incredible experience, your professional guide will take you to the Great Temple of Ramses II and two exquisite temples, Nefertari and Hathor. Discover the wonderful temples built long ago and know more about their relevance to the people of Egypt.

This is a pleasant chance to go to one of the most breathtaking places in Egypt and also, savor the history.

Day Tour to Abu Simbel temples from Cairo

Taking Abu Simbel temples as a focal point, this day tour shall bring you to any of the most famous places in Egypt. Suitable for those aiming to visit the highest rock cut temple of Egypt in the beginning of the tour the actors pick you from your Cairo hotel and it is off to Aswan by air. In Aswan, you will be met by your personal tour guide, who will accompany you on the way to the temples in a modern air-conditioning vehicle.

At some point in the journey, the guide will make some remarks about the temples built for Ramses II, the famous king remembered for the legendary Battle of Qadesh waged against the Hittites. Unique and historical sites will include not only statues of famous figures such as Ramses II that were relocated due to the construction of the Aswan Dam but also many more.

The first site shall be the Temple of Ramesses II, which is the biggest and the most outstanding of all the two temples. Constructed in Honour of Ramses II and his consort Nefertari, the temple was built in 1250 BC and in 1960 underwent relocation by UNESCO because of the Aswan Dam.

Once you finish visiting the temple of Ramses II, you will move on to the Temple of Hathor. This temple was built about 400 years later and has some resemblance to the first. From the roof, visitors can enjoy incredible views of both Lake Nasser and its landscape in addition to a nearby lake over which stunning views can be enjoyed after a short boat trip.

Lastly, we will escort you to the airport for your flight back to Cairo ending your brilliant day tour to Abu Simbel.
