Tanoura Dance in Cairo

Tanoura dance, often called Sufi whirling, is a traditional dance rooted in Egypt and linked to Islam's Sufi heritage. Performed by Sufi dervishes, this captivating and meditative dance is a unique cultural experience not to be missed in Cairo. The "Al Tanoura Heritage Band," one of Egypt's most significant folkloric groups, enhances the performance with various musical instruments such as the oboe, drum, and rababa, creating a mesmerizing atmosphere. Established in February 1988, the band currently comprises 50 members and has participated in numerous national events and international cultural exchange programmes.

Egypt boasts a wealth of incredible sights, from ancient structures like the Step Pyramid to stunning landscapes such as the Nile River and the desert. Visitors from around the globe flock to Egypt to delve into its rich history and admire its remarkable attractions.
