Sharm El Sheikh

Sharm el-Sheikh offers a variety of outdoor activities to suit all interests. In addition to the popular options, you can also enjoy windsurfing, kiteboarding, fishing, and more to ensure everyone has a great time.

Explore the newly opened Sharm El Sheikh Museum of Antiquities, where you can be among the first to experience its impressive collection of over 5,200 artifacts. This museum provides a captivating journey through Egypt's rich heritage, tracing its history from ancient times to the present day.

The Sinai Peninsula, home to the Sharm El Sheikh Museum of Antiquities, is one of Egypt's most significant attractions. It reflects the cultural heritage of the local people and tribes and serves as a cultural hub and meeting point for various civilizations.

Consider adding a visit to the Sharm El Sheikh Museum of Antiquities to your itinerary. This museum, covering 200,000 square meters with a total construction area of 25,709 square meters, was a major project involving over 2,000 workers, engineers, and technicians over two years. It's the first museum of its kind in the South Sinai Governorate and features artifacts from the predynastic period through to modern times, as well as the cultural heritage of Sinai's local tribes. This makes it a must-see destination not just in Sharm El Sheikh but across all of Egypt.

Itinerary

Sharm El Sheikh Museum Day Trip

Meet our representative from Cairo Top Tours at your hotel or any other location in Sharm El Sheikh to begin your exciting Sharm El Sheikh Museum Day Trip. During your excursion, you'll be among the first to explore the Sharm El Sheikh Museum of Antiquities, which opened in October 2020 and features over 6,000 artifacts from various periods of Egyptian history.

You'll be transported in a modern air-conditioned vehicle with your private tour guide and enjoy a visit to the museum.

The museum is open at the following times:

- Morning: 10 am to 1 pm
- Evening: 5 pm to 11 pm

The museum includes a private gallery showcasing archaeological treasures from Tutankhamun's tomb, including 12 artifacts of the young king, as well as newly discovered items like mummified cats and falcons. A newly displayed statue of a New Kingdom king is also featured in the exhibition hall.

The museum focuses on the significance of Egyptian civilization, its development, and the achievements of the ancient Egyptians. It also highlights the relationship between Egyptians and their environment, including their reverence for sacred creatures and the meanings derived from their interactions.

After your tour, you will be transferred back to your hotel or another preferred drop-off location.
