Excursion of Wadi El Natrun from the Port of Alexandria

A reasonable quality tour is very popular and can be termed the Wadi El Natrun Tour from Alexandria Port. Wadi El Natrun is a place in the Western Desert of Egypt better known for its old-time monasteries, the Monastery of Saint Macarius the Great more so. Many such monasteries trace their history to the 4th century A.D., thanks to Saint Macarius of Egypt. The Coptic Christians who settled in these Coptic Corners lived in peace and inhabited dispersed walled structures standing in the middle of a desert territory without the Nile and other civilizations around them. The residents of these communities lived as ascetics, cut off from the rest of society, in silence and in prayer. In the course of history, these monasteries have been raided and annihilated time and again, and each time they rebuilt, the way of life of the monks was unchanged.

Wadi El Natrun Trip from Alexandria Port

Arriving at Alexandria's Port, you will be warmly greeted by our representative, who will assist you into an air-conditioned, modern vehicle that will take you for the Wadi El Natrun excursion.

The route will begin at the Al-Paramus Monastery, which is the most primitive and the farthest of the four monasteries. After that, you'll move on to the Monastery of Anba Bishoi, which houses the remains of the founder of this monastery. Next, move on to the Abu Maqar Monastery, which is the richest owing to its large farm that has 600 workers and over 100 monks. The last stop of your tour will be the least spacious and the most tightly constructed of all the four monasteries, the El-Suryani Monastery.

You will have a chance to shop at any local markets or traditional bazaars that you wish, have lunch at a restaurant, and at the end, we will transfer you to the Alexandria Port.
