Day 2: Tour to Giza Pyramids and the Egyptian Museum

After enjoying a delicious breakfast at the hotel, you will meet your certified tour guide to begin your Cairo tour by visiting the Giza Pyramids. These ancient marvels include the Great Pyramid of King Cheops, built during the 4th dynasty of ancient Egypt.

Explore the pyramids of Chephren and Mycerinus, successors to King Cheops, and then head to the high plateau for breathtaking views and memorable photo opportunities.

Afterwards, you can opt for an unforgettable camel ride around the Giza Pyramids before visiting the Great Sphinx, a remarkable sculpture with the head of a human and the body of a lion, located nearby.

Next, you will be transferred to Tahrir Square, one of Cairo's most famous and largest squares. Here, you will embark on a tour of the Egyptian Museum to marvel at artifacts spanning various periods of antiquity, including the treasures of the young King Tutankhamun. The museum houses over 120,000 artifacts, including colossal statues, golden coffins, sarcophagi, and mummies.

Following your museum visit, enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant in Cairo. Afterwards, proceed to Khan El Khalili Bazaar, Egypt's oldest market, where you can sip traditional mint tea at a local cafe and explore the bustling surroundings typical of Islamic Cairo.

At the end of your Cairo day tour, you will be transferred back to the hotel for an overnight stay in Cairo.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Cairo to Alexandria, Alexandria Tours

After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, you will be transported by air-conditioned vehicle to begin your day trip from Cairo to Alexandria. Upon arrival, your tour of Alexandria will commence with a visit to the Roman Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, discovered at the beginning of the 20th century, which served as one of the largest burial sites during the Greco-Roman period in Egypt.

Historians confirm that the catacombs were in use until the late 4th century A.D. and later fell into disuse. Next, you will visit the site where the Pompey Pillar stands amidst the ruins of the Alexandria Serapeum, originally constructed by Ptolemy III.

Following this, you will explore the Citadel of Qaitbay, constructed in the 15th century by the Mamluk Sultan Qaitbay to defend against Crusader threats. This impressive Islamic monument was built using remnants of the ancient Alexandria Lighthouse Pharos, which dates back to the 3rd century B.C.

En route, you will pass by the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, a modern library dedicated to scientific research across various fields. Enjoy a fresh seafood lunch at a restaurant overlooking the harbour before proceeding to check-in at your hotel in Alexandria.

Overnight stay in Alexandria.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Alexandria to El Alamein

Enjoy your morning meal at the hotel in Alexandria before checking out and embarking on a journey to El Alamein. There, you will visit the El Alamein War Cemetery, where artifacts and remnants from the battles fought in October and November 1942 are on display. Your knowledgeable guide will provide detailed insights during your visit.

Afterwards, continue your journey to Marsa Matrouh, a picturesque city on the Mediterranean coast, where you will stop for lunch before proceeding towards Siwa Oasis.

Upon reaching Siwa, check into your hotel, then head to one of the natural hot springs to unwind and soothe your muscles after the day's travels.

Overnight stay in Siwa.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5: Siwa Sightseeing

After your morning meal, embark on an exhilarating Siwa Oasis Desert Safari adventure. Begin with a visit to the partially melted ruins of the Shali Fortress, followed by a trip to the Temple of The Oracle in the ancient village of Aghurmi, dating back to the 26th dynasty.

Next, proceed to the Temple of Amun Ra at Um Ubeyda, originally constructed for the worship of the triad of God Amun. Immerse yourself in the unique Siwan culture at the Siwa House Museum, where you can learn about the traditions of the Bedouin tribes in Siwa.

Enjoy a delightful lunch served at Abdo restaurant in the popular square overlooking the fortress. Spend a relaxing afternoon at Cleopatra Spring, where you can swim in the crystal-clear natural water. Later, head to Fitnas Island to witness a breathtaking sunset.

Overnight stay in Siwa.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6: Continue Siwa Sightseeing

Enjoy your breakfast at the Eco-lodge, then proceed with your Siwa Oasis desert safari to explore the rock-cut tombs located in the Mountain of the Dead. This mountain features tombs carved into its base, terraces, and summit.

Return to the hotel and switch to another 4x4 vehicle to begin your Great Sand Sea Tour. Drive to one of the captivating sites in the Great Sand Sea known for its unique sand formations that ripple like waves of the sea.

Experience the thrill of sandboarding. While not as fast-paced as snowboarding, with proper technique, you can glide down some of the massive dunes in the Great Sand Sea for an exhilarating adventure.

After sandboarding, unwind at the renowned hot spring known as Bir Wahid, where you can relax in the soothing 40-degree warm water, perfect for rejuvenating and easing tired muscles.

Enjoy another spectacular sunset amidst the dunes of the Great Sand Sea, accompanied by traditional Bedouin tea.

Overnight stay in Siwa.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 7: Back to Cairo

Enjoy an early breakfast at the eco-lodge before embarking on your return journey to Cairo, which will take approximately 8 hours including scheduled rest stops. Upon arrival in Cairo, you will be transferred to Cairo International Airport for your departure flight, concluding your memorable 7-day tour of Cairo and Siwa Oasis, one of our premier Egypt Desert Safari Packages.
