Day trip to Alexandria from Cairo | Alexandria full day tour

Explore our captivating Egypt day trips from Cairo to the shimmering city of Alexandria, the "Pearl of the Mediterranean" and the city named after the renowned Macedonian leader. Your expert tour guide from Cairo Top Tours will greet you in the lobby of your Cairo or Giza hotel, and together you'll set off on a journey to explore the rich history and stunning sights of this iconic destination.

During the approximately two-hour drive to Alexandria, you can stop at a nearby rest area, where you can refresh with a drink, use the restroom, or stretch your legs. Once you reach Alexandria, your first stop will be Pompey's Pillar, the sole remaining Roman temple pillar, standing tall on a rocky plateau amidst the ruins of the ancient Serapeum. Next, you'll visit the magnificent Citadel of Qaitbay, a medieval fortress built by the Mamluk Sultan in 1477 AD, which stands on the site of the legendary ancient lighthouse, one of the seven wonders of the ancient world.

Delve deeper into Alexandria's rich history by exploring the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, the last significant structure dedicated to the ancient Egyptians. These three-layered tombs and rooms, carved into the rock beneath the ground, showcase the elegantly decorated burial site of a wealthy Romanized Egyptian family.

Finally, you'll visit the iconic Bibliotheca of Alexandria, a modern library and cultural center that pays homage to the ancient Library of Alexandria, one of the largest and most significant libraries of the ancient world.

As you stroll along the picturesque Alexandria Corniche and the old harbor, you'll witness the traditional fishing boats, and local fishermen casting their nets, and capturing mesmerizing photographs of this captivating setting. Your day will conclude with a delightful lunch at a high-quality restaurant before you're transferred back to Cairo, where you'll have a chance to rest and reflect on your unforgettable journey.
