Coptic and Islamic Cairo Day Tour

Explore the heart of Cairo, where the ancient legacies of Coptic and Islamic civilizations intertwine. Your day tour begins with a visit to the majestic Saladin Citadel, a testament to the enduring power and influence of the Muslim rulers who once governed this land. Marvel at the architectural splendor of the Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, which served as the center of Egyptian administration for centuries.

Next, immerse yourself in the grandeur of Islamic architecture as you explore the Mamluk Mosque and Madrasas of Sultan Hassan, a true masterpiece that has been hailed as the "Pyramid of Islamic Architecture" in Cairo. Venture further to the historic Mosque of Ibn Tulun, the oldest standing mosque in Africa, and witness the remarkable blend of ancient and modern elements that have shaped its timeless design.

Delve into the rich Coptic heritage of the city by visiting the Roman Fortress of Babylon, a captivating relic from the past that has stood the test of time. Uncover the spiritual significance of the Hanging Church, a remarkable structure built above the ruins of the ancient fortress, and the Church of Abu Serga, a sacred site associated with the Holy Family's journey through Egypt.

As you wander through the winding streets of Coptic Cairo, you'll have the opportunity to visit the enchanting Ben Ezra Synagogue, a testament to the remarkable religious diversity that has long characterized this extraordinary city.

After a delightful lunch in the heart of Old Cairo, embark on a shopping adventure at the renowned Khan El Khalili Bazaar, where the sights, sounds, and aromas of ancient traditions come alive. Immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere and discover a treasure trove of local artisanal products, textiles, and souvenirs that will forever capture the essence of your journey through Cairo.
