Luxor west bank tour with a felucca ride

You will be picked up in the morning to begin the day's excursion on the Luxor West Bank Tour with a Felucca ride.

The Museum of Mummification:

By describing the religious significance of mummification and the ceremonies involved, as well as by showcasing many of the items used, the Mummification Museum offers a thorough introduction to the entire process.

After that, you will be riding in a felucca on the great Nile and enjoying an amazing adventure with two hours of limitless enjoyment.

The Temple of Luxor:

Known as the "cache hall," the museum's collection of pharaoh statues was first displayed in 1991 AD. The Glory of Thebes Military Hall was inaugurated in 2004 AD and is housed in the Luxor Museum. A small model of an antique fishing boat and a model of a boat with oarsmen, sailors, and a crowd of people are on display in the hall.

After that, you will be returned to your hotel, where our service will come to an end.

meals: Lunch.
