Itinerary

Egyptian Museum and Saladin Citadel Trip from Sokhna Port

When you arrive at Cairo's Top Tour port, our representative will greet you and assist in beginning your Cairo exploration.

Your adventure kicks off with a two-hour visit to the Egyptian Museum in Cairo, home to one of the largest collections of Egyptian artifacts globally. You'll discover ancient treasures, including the impressive sarcophagi and the renowned treasures of King Tutankhamun. Tutankhamun, a young but famous pharaoh, is celebrated for the opulence found in his tomb, sparking ongoing debates about his untimely death.

Next, we'll head to the Citadel of Salah El-Din, a historic fortress in Islamic Cairo offering breathtaking views of the city and its numerous minarets and domes.

Your tour will also include a visit to the stunning Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, built by a Turkish architect in 1805. This mosque, reminiscent of Istanbul's Blue Mosque, showcases the architectural elegance and reforms of Mohamed Ali Pasha. Admire its grand dome and intricate stained glass windows. If time permits, explore Khan El Khalili, Cairo's vibrant bazaar, to experience traditional local life.

At the end of your tour, your guide will escort you back to your cruise ship at Sokhna Port.
