Private Full Day Tour to Pyramids & papyrus institute From Sokhna Port

Our tour leader will pick you up from Sokhna port and take you to Cairo in a modern, air-conditioned automobile. We will first visit the world-famous Giza Pyramids. They were created almost 4,500 years ago and are an awe-inspiring sight today. We'll take you right up close to see them in all their beauty.

Next, we'll travel to Memphis, which was the ancient Egyptian capital for over a thousand years. It is currently a remarkable archaeological site, containing remnants of temples, palaces, and other structures.

We'll take you on a guided tour of this important city.

Papyrus, a handmade paper, was used by ancient Egyptians to record science, history, and life events. It also served as a mark for Egyptian pharaohs. They utilised it to depict how they lived at the time and spoke with Egypt's gods and goddesses.

We will visit Saqqara, a large necropolis with thousands of tombs and monuments. It is home to the world's oldest pyramid, the Step Pyramid of Djoser. We'll take you to view this magnificent structure as well as some of the other monuments inside the complex.

Following that, we will visit the Papyrus Institute, a must-see for anybody interested in ancient Egyptian history and culture. Here, you can witness how papyrus is created and learn about its importance in Egyptian culture. Finally, we shall have lunch and take you to the Sokhna harbour.

You can even try making your own papyrus! Our Giza Pyramids, Memphis, and Saqqara tour is the ideal way to see the best of ancient Egypt. Book today to avoid missing out!
