Our first stop will be Edfu Temple which is the Temple of God Horus this is one of the most preserved temples and second in size only to the Karnak Temple of Luxor. Belonging to the king protector of Horus falcon deity, the temple is from the Hellenistic age, which is over 2200 years old.

We shall get back to the cruise boat for lunch and then prepare for another marvelous tour of the Temple of Crocodile God Sobek known as the Temple of Kom Ombo. This temple has a specific proportional ratio and its plan is divided into two sorts, one is Sobek crocodile god, and the other is the old falcon god Horus. This temple is one of the most stunning ones I have ever seen;
